

Worcester Immigration Attorney Now Practicing in Deportation Law

Attorney James Hentz of the Law Office of James P. Hentz has expanded his immigration expertise to include deportation law. Deportation is legally defined as the act of expelling a foreigner from a country, usually because he/she is there illegally, committed a crime, has a criminal record, and/or lied on his/her entry documents. When someone is deported, he/she has the opportunity to defend his/her residence in the United States at a deportation hearing before being removed from the country. If you are an immigrant to the United States who feels that you are being unjustly deported, Attorney Hentz will help you legally stay in the country. He will look at your specific case and see if you qualify for visas, waivers, a suspension of deportation, asylum, or an adjustment of legal status. Attorney Hentz can also go further to help you apply for a green card once you are a legal immigrant of the United States. The Law Office of James P. Hentz has added deportation law as an area of practice in compliance with Attorney Hentz's motto "I will help you get your life back." No honorable foreigner should have to fear leaving his/her family or life in the United States because of deportation. If you or a loved one is being deported, but wants to remain longer in the United States, please call Attorney James Hentz at 508-797-3022.

Attorney Hentz has practices located in Worcester and Milford, concentrating in the areas of Immigration Law, Criminal Law, Personal Injury, Landlord Tenant Law, and SSI/SSDI.
